WHAT STATE DID

MISSOURI'S GREAT RECORD AS CROP PRODUCING STATE.

STATE AVERAGE 32 BU.

Missouri "Some Pumpkins" When It Comes to Raising Corn, Wheat and Hay.

Missouri is "some pumpkins." Each year the Missouri farmer cuts a half billion dollar melon.

"Some pumpkins" in corn! Missouri will this year harvest more than a million bushels of corn to the county—and there are 114 counties in the state. Despite the discount that drouth demanded, we are still "some pumpkins" in corn production. Preliminary figures by the United States department of agriculture credit Missouri with more barrels of corn than Kansas has bushels—and it takes five bushels to make one barrel. The Missouri crop of 1912 was about a quarter of a billion bushels. But two states in the Union—Illinois and Iowa—grew more. Five Missouri counties each grew more than 5,000,000 bushels of corn, while seven others grew more than 4,000,000 bushels each. These twelve counties together grew one-fourth as much corn as the entire state of Indiana, practically the same as either Michigan or Wisconsin, more than one-fourth as much as either Kansas or Nebraska, one-third as much as the entire state of Texas, one-half as much as Oklahoma and more than all of Arkansas. The combined output of corn grown in twenty states of the Union is less than that of these dozen Missouri counties. One Missouri county alone with production of 6,413,000 bushels grew more corn than any one of sixteen states. Argentina, that vast country of South America, grew but one-fifth more bushels of corn than did Missouri.

"Some pumpkins" in wheat! The 1913 Missouri wheat crop amounted to more than 35,000,000 bushels—more, according to preliminary figures by the United States department of agriculture than that of any other state save six. This is more than twice as much wheat as was grown in either Oklahoma or Oregon, both heralded as wonder wheat states. It is more than three times as much as grown in the entire state of Texas, where the wagon haul to railroad is often as long as is the railroad haul in Missouri. It is more than three times as much as is grown in Colorado, where the millionaire goes for air, and almost thirty times as much as is grown in Arkansas, where many go for bear. It is more than was grown in Alberta last year, and in this same Missouri, land of balmy days and bluegrass, is grown a wheat crop equal to one-sixth of all Canada.

"Some pumpkins" in hay! With a hay harvest of 4,143,000 tons in 1912, Missouri, according to government figures, was surpassed by but three states—New York, Iowa and Pennsylvania. The Missouri crop was practically the same as the combined output of all the south central states—Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and Oklahoma. In value, it was more than double that of the Kansas crop.

"Some pumpkins" in total value of farm crops! Missouri is now the fourth state in the Union in total value of farm crops. Texas is first, with crop values for the year 1912 amounting to $407,166,000; Illinois second, $289,326,000; Iowa third, $284,395,000; Missouri fourth, $196,968,000. A further analysis of the figures as given by the government shows Missouri's superiority. For instance, the total land area of Missouri is but 43,985,720 acres as compared with 167,934,720 acres in Texas. Missouri with only about one-fourth the land area, produced last year farm crops worth approximately one-half as much as all Texas. In 1912 Texas farmers cultivated 7,300,000 acres of corn land; Missouri farmers, 7,622,000; Kansas farmers, 7,575,000. The corn acreage for the three states differed but little—the difference is in the yield. Texas grew 153,300,000 bushels of corn; Kansas, 174,225,000; Missouri, 243,904,000. For his work the Texas farmer got 21 bushels of corn per acre, the Kansas farmer 23 bushels, and the Missouri farmer 32 bushels.

REASON FOR ATTENDING CHURCH

What a Congressman Says About It—Should Be Read in Every Church and Sunday School.

Congressman Claude Weaver of Oklahoma recently gave to Leslie's Weekly his reason for attending church. The article attracted wide attention and Mr. Weaver's colleagues in congress voted it a place in the Congressional Record of the United States congress, upon a motion made by Congressman Ferris, who said it "should be read in every church and Sunday school in the United States, and should be preserved for those who come after us." Congressman Weaver's article is as follows:

It is sweet on a summer's morning, when the air is aquiver with the love songs of the birds and fragrant with the odor of roses blown, to hear the music of the churchgoing bells, an invitation to the world-wearied to enter God's temple and find peace, because the instinct of worship is in the heart of man and the church is the temple of the living God.

I go to church because I find peace there, that peace which De Quincy described as a resting from human labors, a Sabbath of repose, a respite granted from the secret burdens of the heat, as if the tumult and fever and strife were suspended; as if there brooded over me a dove-like and halcyon calm.

I go to church because I love the music that I hear there, the mighty roll of the great organ, mingled with the marvelous symphonies of that divine stringed instrument, the human voice, untwisting all the chains that tie the hidden soul of harmony.

I go to church because I delight to hear the teachings of the preacher, whose sold is dedicated to God, whose field is as wide as God's universe, whose theme is the destiny of man, and whose words are the oracles of Fate. Marvelous is the spell of the preacher to whom God has given genius and consecration and the power of illustration drawn from the old, sacred, immortal Book, and from the miracles of nature, no less revealed in the crimson-tipped flower turned up by the plowshare of Robert Burns upon the soil of Ayr than in the long reaches of the star-girt skies.

I go to church because "the way is dark and I am far from home," and because the church is the polar star to light my pathway in the rayless night.

I go to church because the church ministers not only to the spiritual but also to the material needs of life, and because it is there that the charities that soothe and heal and bless are scattered at the feet of man like flowers.

I go to church because in that atmosphere vice and crime wither and die.

I go to church because I hear the teachings of the philosophy of Jesus, the incomparable man; and if you say His teaching is philosophy and not religion, and that He was a man and not a god, then the philosophy of that man has redeemed the world from savagery and blessed mankind with Christian civilization, and, to my mind, it is a thing worth while to hear.

I go to church because I find there consolation and hope; because I see there the dawn and not the sunset; and it is better for man, if the hope is baseless and the vision but an elusive phantom, to cherish a dream so glorious and beautiful than to be weighted down and crushed with the quarried mountains of a world without hope and without God.

MORE WEDDINGS

MATRIMONY HAS BEEN LIVELY THIS YEAR.

253 LICENSES ISSUED

Two More Than Were Issued During All of Last Year—February the Best Month.

The matrimony business this year is better than it was last year, and still there is one more month to run on this year. Up to December 1 there were 253 marriage licenses issued by Recorder J. Arthur Wray since January 1. The marriage licenses as issued for the year 1912 were 251.

The record as made during the eleven months of this year is two better than the entire number issued during 1912. The highest month this year was in February, when 32 licenses were issued. The next best month was March. In 1912 the best month was December, there being 44. The second month was February, with June as third.

The following are the licenses issued so far this year by months:

January 24, February 32, March 29, April 28, May 12, June 16, July, August 17, September 28, October 24, November 20.

For the year 1912 the following record was made by months:

January 16, February 30, March 23, April 15, May 10, June 24, July 12, August 15, September 18, October 23, November 21, December 44.

EXHIBIT CAR COMING.

Many Exhibits of the Wonderful Agricultural Possibilities of the Southwest.

A representatives of the agricultural department of the St. Louis Southwestern (Cotton Belt) railway called at the office of The Democrat-Forum today, advertising the visit of the exhibit car which this company is operating through the north, showing the products of the farms along its lines.

This car is worthy of a visit from an educational standpoint, as it contains samples of all kinds of farm crops grown in the south, including cotton, rice, sugar cane, as well as a great many of the standard crops ordinarily grown in the north.

The object of this car is to demonstrate to the farmers and business men of the territory the wonderful agricultural possibilities of the southwest. The farmers and business men are invited to visit the car, also a special invitation is extended to the school children to visit the car, accompanied by their teachers. Special talks will be given the school children by those in charge of the car relative to the growing of the different crops in the south.

Admission to the car is free to everybody. It will be in Maryville on Friday, December 5, from 8 a. m. to 8:43 p. m., near the Wabash freight depot.

The Hedge Fence Law.

Property owners who neglect their hedges until they become a nuisance to the traveling public will be interested in knowing that further neglect is likely to bring upon them a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $100 for each offense. A law passed by the recent legislature provides that any person holding a hedge fence or property enclosed by such a fence along any public road or highway in this state must trim the same to the height of not more than five feet once a year. As soon as notified in writing by three or more property owners of his district that this law is being violated a road overseer must notify the prosecuting attorney at once, presenting him with the copy for the notice. It will then become the duty of the prosecuting attorney to begin action against the offender unless he complies with the law within thirty days. Neglected hedges soon become a nuisance to the traveling public and this law will be generally appreciated.

GOSSIP FATAL TO SOCIAL LIFE.

Farm Women's Clubs Cannot Succeed Unless Other Interests Are Paramount.

Only one thing is fatal to the happy social life of any country community, and that is gossip. If the women in their clubs cannot find in the wide field of housekeeping, chicken raising, preserving, care of children, public schools, music, art, reading, public improvements, good government, health, sewing, entertaining and all other delightful household tasks, enough material to lift the meetings above petty personalities, then the little club, or whatever it is called, is doomed. Whenever gossip is allowed to creep into any organization people will begin to break up into little cliques or circles or groups, and the whole thing fails.—Hilda Richmond in Farm and Fireside.

HE IS NOW READY

TREASURER HAS MONEY FOR ROAD WORK.

CONTRACTS TO BE MADE

Highway Commission Anxious to Hear From Men Who Will Drag the Roads.

The county highway commission is now ready to contract for the dragging of the county seat roads in this county, as Treasurer W. R. Tilson has received the first payment of the money due to the county for three months. The amount is $540, and another payment of $180 will be received soon by Mr. Tilson from the state for the month of October.

With $160 being received every month for the dragging of 144 miles of these roads, the county commission wants to let the work now so the roads can be dragged before winter sets in. The secretary of the commission, John H. Clary, would like for those living along these roads to notify him at once of how many miles they would be willing to sign contract to drag. The commission would prefer in many instances where it is practical for one man to contract for four or six miles, and he to direct the work whenever it is done by him or not done by him in person. To contract for each individual mile would require a great deal of labor on the part of the commission to keep straight.

Those who are wanting to sign contracts for dragging the roads are to state in their applications the distance and from what point to what point and on what road they are wanting to have. According to the state law $15 a mile is allowed for each road, and the money being received is on this basis.

With the money now on hand we will be able to care for the roads during winter and have them in good condition in the spring.

A Good Corn Crop.

L. W. Huddle, who bought the F. McMackin farm, southwest of Burlington Junction, last winter, has raised a bumper corn crop this year. The corn from fifteen acres weighed out 1,050 bushels, and he had thirty acres that averaged sixty bushels. Mr. Huddle has been offered 75 cents for the corn, and the land would bring an income of $45 an acre at this price. There are several other fields on the river bottom near Burlington Junction that are averaging from fifty to seventy bushels.—Burlington Junction Post.

REVIVAL STARTED

SUNDAY AT THE FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH OF THIS CITY.

THE SUNDAY'S SERVICES

An Address by Mrs. Latshaw in the Morning—Had Lady Ushers and Chorus and Raised $175.

The series of special services that commenced Sunday at the First Christian church opened with a special meeting of the C. W. B. M., who had charge of the morning service.

The morning address was delivered by Mrs. Ralph S. Latshaw of Kansas City, who gave an inspirational and instructive talk. Mrs. Latshaw is president of the state C. W. B. M., which has a membership of 8,000, with 274 auxiliaries. This membership led that of each other state in the report turned in at the international convention at Toronto, Canada, held recently. At the close of the service Mrs. Latshaw asked the minister, Rev. F. L. Finch, to conduct the call for an offering for the day, which resulted in gathering $175. Six new life memberships of $25 each were taken and one name plate costing $10 was taken in memory of the late Mrs. Frank Owens. The plate will have a place in the missionary training school at Indianapolis, Ind.

The morning services were presided over by the president, Mrs. Robert Lyle, and Mrs. J. D. Frank, the county president, had charge of the devotional services. The music was furnished by a ladies chorus and the ushers were ladies.

The evening service was evangelistic, the pastor, Rev. Finch, speaking on the subject "The Great Man in Maryville—The Man Who Serves in His Respective Sphere of Life."

Fifty people pledged at the evening service to take a religious census of Maryville on Tuesday afternoon.

There will be services each night this week, the subject for Monday night being "Positive Discipleship." The public is cordially invited to attend these meetings.

PHONES CUT OFF.

One-Hundred and Twenty-Five Out of Two Hundred People on Clearmont Directories Are Phoneless.

The Clearmont Telephone company held a meeting Monday morning, December 1, and ordered service on 125 phones cut off until the dues on those phones were paid.

The patrons are not "dead beats," not by any means, but they have just neglected to pay their dues. So 125 people, including all but five business houses in town, felt completely isolate dtoday, until their could re-establish themselves in the service.

At 3 o'clock Monday afternoon people yere trying to pay their dues at the rate of five at a time, and just as soon as they can get to town or send somebody the ywill pay up. The plight some people found themselves in when they could not make known their wants was langhable.

The officers of the company are Howard Bancroft, president; Will Lemon, secretary; Jacob Burch, treasurer.

Reception for Kansas City Women.

Although the weather was exceeding inclement Saturday afternoon, quite a number of women gathered in the parlors of the First Christian church to meet Mrs. Ralph S. Latshaw, Sr., and Mrs. O. W. Lawrence of Kansas City, state officers of the C. W. B. M. The reception was to have been given for the visiting ladies by the local C. W. B. M. and the Young Ladies' Mission Circle, but owing to the fact that they missed their train connections in Kansas City through the breaking down of the engine on their train out of Kansas City, they did not reach Maryville until 5 o'clock. Mrs. Latshaw and Mrs. Lawrence came over by team from Conception Junction. There was much disappointment felt at not meeting them at the reception, especially in the case of Mrs. Lawrence, who is admired and loved by many here as the wife of the late Rev. O. W. Lawrence. Those who remained to meet them, however, were well repaid.

Mrs. Lawrence, who left on the 7:11 train for Burlington Junction to keep her appointment with the C. W. B. M. of the Christian church there for an address at the morning service, responded first to the welcome given her by the women she had loved and worked with as a pastor's wife only a few years ago. Every word she said was an inspiration, and her brief notice of the great Toronto convention was enough to show she had gained enough there to spur her on to still greater endeavor, and that she was able to lead others. She told with gratitude how the people of her denomination were becoming a praying people, one characteristic of the convention being the large prayer meetings at 7:30 each morning, and then that they were becoming great in giving. One man from a church in southern California, at Redlands, where her father, Dr. Bayard Craig, is pastor, has increased his subscription to mission work to $500 per month, an increase of $1,000 a year over his subscription of last year, and many other men of wealth are consecrating it to the work of spreading the Gospel throughout all the world, while a Denver woman has only recently given half her fortune.

Mrs. Latshaw, who is the wife of Judge Latshaw of the criminal court of Kansas City, then gave a short talk. She is a woman of splendid presence, large and queenly in bearing, and is as charming of manner as is Mrs. Lawrence. She is eminently fitted for her office as president of the Missouri C. W. B. M., and it was indeed an infusion of new life to meet and hear these women, who are so consecrated to Christian work and are devoting their time in leading organized effort in spreading the kingdom of God.

Mrs. Latshaw is the mother of six children, and although she has been busily engaged in church work all through her married life, she has not neglected the rearing of her children. Her eldest son, Ralph S. Latshaw, Jr., is assistant prosecuting attorney of Jackson county, and her eldest daughter, Miss Constance Latshaw, is actively engaged in state Endeavor work, and has several times served as a state officer. Both are graduates of the Missouri state university. Her youngest daughter, Mary, is president of the Junior Endeavor society at the Jackson Avenue Christian church. Ross, the youngest son, who is 5 years old, says he is going to be a missionary to Africa and shoot lions. Mrs. Latshaw's other two children are in high school, and all are studying and are personally interested in some phase of the world's missionary work.

Mrs. Latshaw is a woman of broad culture. She was born in Honolulu and lived there until she was 11 years old, when her father, an American lumber merchant there, returned to this country and went to Kansas City to live, where she was educated. On her graduation from high school she was granted a year's visit with friends in Honolulu, where she took special study. She did not realize the importance of the work of missionaries in the foreign countries until her last visit in Honolulu. When she was a small child, living there, she attended the schools of the missionaries, but did not care for them much, because one thing in hand work she was given to do was to piece quilts, and she disliked it. But one time when the missionaries started away to work on other islands and she, with the other children, went down to the wharf to see them off, their going made a deep impression on her and she deeply regretted their departure. They sailed away in one of the ships called "Morning Stars," that were built and paid for by the children of the United States for carrying on missionary work.

Mrs. Latshaw believes with one of our noted ministers that the one course of study she would select for her daughters to give them a world point of view of things would be the study of missions, for it includes a most fascinating course in the study of all the peoples of the world, their government, their customs, their religion, all their life. A university course does nothing but give one a point of view, a big point of view, for one gets his Greek and Latin and other things that go in a learned course, but the point of view one gains is the thing that counts. To study and work in the cause of missions gives one a wonderful viewpoint, and, in small measure, God's viewpoint, and that is what the Christian woman of today needs, and the woman who wants to be of service. Women are not satisfied these days with merely giving themselves over to a life that has pleasures for the few, but they want a training that will result in doing good to all the world when put into use.

Mental Telepathy

We have grown to be quite experienced in this field, which we will try to explain.

One of our known young society ladies favored us with a call Saturday to have her Hat Pin straightened. While this was being done a "mental message" came to our young man, who was talking every day topics, "How I would love to see those beautiful new coral rings"—and our young man immediately took out the tray, and to her dismay, showed her what she had asked to herself to see.

Now our only explanation—we study you—your wants and your wishes.

Restaurant Cashier Held Up.

Iowa City, Dec. 1.—Two masked men robbed the Merchants restaurant here of about $100 at 4 a. m. The cashier and headwaiter were ordered to turn over the money in the cash register. The few patrons of the restaurant who were present at that hour were not molested.

Printed on the front of every official time table which goes to Wabash employes are two large circles, "SAFETY ALWAYS." Printed on the back of every official time table are these words: "SAFETY should be the first consideration of every employe." It is a constant admonition to every Wabash trainman, for the protection of every Wabash traveler. Beginning with the human factor, the Wabash surrounds its travelers with every mechanical safeguard known to modern railroadism: Steel equipment; automatic electric block signals; miles of double track; heavy rails and substantial roadbed; telephone dispatching, etc.

REGARDING Wiring of Houses After Same are Occupied

Many people suppose that a house which is built and occupied cannot be wired without tearing same to pieces. This is an erroneous idea. We can and do wire many houses of this description without even disturbing the furniture in the greater part of the house. We replace everything as found. Should it be necessary to take up any carpets on the second floor we relay same, and in fact if you were out of the house until we had finished the only evidence of our visit would be a modern lighting system, which after using you would never be without. Let us call and figure the cost. It is less than you think. Electricity is no longer a luxury and is the only household necessity which has become appreciably cheaper in the last years.

VILLA PREPARES TO MOVE SOUTH

Advance Guard of Rebel Army on Way to Chihuahua.

SAYS HE WILL SOON TAKE CITY

Rebel Chieftain Declares It Is On to Mexico City Next—Carranza Evidently Waiting Outcome of Hale's Conference With Wilson.

Juarez, Dec. 1.—Northern Mexico, embracing the states of Sonora, Chihuahua, Coahuila, Nuevo Leon and Tamaulipas and including the territory from the border 500 miles southward, will be wholly under the authority of the rebel forces within two weeks. The forces which are fighting Huerta will then join at Guadalajara with a view of marching on to Mexico City.

General Francisco Villa, the rebel leader, so announced. This campaign, he said, contemplated not only the capture of Chihuahua City, but also the spreading of the rebel, or constitutionalist, authority farther south.

He is to be joined in the interior later by General Carranza, the head of the revolutionary movement. So far as the north is concerned, Villa said the campaign is between 14,500 federal troops, mostly in garrison, and 20,300 rebels, or constitutionalists, in garrisons or roaming the country.

In preparation for the attack on Chihuahua City, 3,500 troops, with sixteen machine guns and equipment, which filled three trains, have left Juarez and had reached a point fifty miles south. Villa expects to join his men within a few days and if possible to keep open train and telegraph service behind him. He said he would be in Chihuahua City within ten days.

But the capture of the city, he insisted, will be only an incident of a further advance later in conjunction with Carranza and other rebel leaders.

Villa pointed out that the only important points along the United States border not held by the rebels now are Nuevo Laredo, opposite Laredo, Tex., and Piedras Negras, opposite Eagle Pass, Tex., and that his forces already had captured every city in the north except Guaymas, Chihuahua City, Saltillo, Monteiova and Monterey.

Carranza Waiting.

Hermosillo, Sonora, Mex., Dec. 1.—General Carranza and his advisers appeared to have assumed a policy of awaiting the result of Francisco Villa's attack on Chihuahua and the outcome of William Bayard Hale's conferences with President Wilson at Washington before making either a military or diplomatic move. The success or failure of Villa's attempt to capture the Chihuahua state capital is expected to decide in which direction the provisional capital will be moved.

CAMORRISTS WOULD APPEAL

Socialist Deputy Holds Men Convicted at Viterbo Were Not Murderers.

Rome, Dec. 1.—Sig. Sollini, Socialist deputy from Naples, is determined to have the trial of the Camorrists at Viterbo revised. He says he is convinced that the chiefs of the organization who were convicted there were not the actual murderers of Cuoccolo at Naples and threatens to make sensational revelations in case his appeal is rejected.

Warrant Officer Farris of the carabinieri, who was one of the chief witnesses at the trial, has just resigned because the government gave a reward of only $40. Sollini hopes that he will be able to make a big point in his case through the knowledge possessed by Farris.

The latter, while admitting that he could make sensational disclosures involving the superiors, says he is convinced that the verdict at the Viterbo trial was just.

Teamsters Strike in Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Dec. 1.—The teamsters union voted unanimously to go on a strike. The union, which includes the commercial chauffeurs, has between 1,500 and 2,000 members. A special dispensation for milk wagons driven by union teamsters was made at the meeting at the suggestion of Thomas J. Farrell, general organizer of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffers, Stablemen and Helpers of America. Drivers of hearses are exempt from the strike order. Farrell also announced there would be no interference with the mails.

RAVENWOOD.

The turkey dinner and oyster supper given here by the Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church on Thanksgiving was a complete success. A large crowd of well behaved people were present, and between $55 and $60 was taken in. It was the occasion of the meeting of neighbors and friends that was enjoyed by all. Such social gatherings are good places to cultivate the finer and nobler qualities of our human nature as well as to show our thanks to the giver of all blesings, both spiritual and temporal.

We had a considerable rain Friday night and Saturday and Sunday.

Our farmers will soon be done husking corn if the weather is favorable. There is some fine corn in this part of the county, and some that is very light. No indication of a famine.

DANIELS TELLS OF NEEDS OF NAVY

Recommendations and Suggestions of Secretary.

NAVAL BUILDING PROGRAM.

Asks for Two Dreadnoughts, Three Submarines and Eight Destroyers. Proposes to Spend More Money Afloat and Less Ashore.

Washington, Dec. 1.—Two dreadnoughts, eight destroyers and three submarines is the yearly naval building program Secretary Daniels recommends in his first annual report to President Wilson.

While such a program is somewhat less than recommended by the navy general board, principally because Mr. Daniels believes it is as heavy as the revenues of the government will permit, he believes it is a progressive one which will meet the demand to go forward in the continuation of an adequate and well proportioned navy.

Second only in interest to the secretary's building program is an indorsement of Winston Churchill's proposed "naval holiday," with a recommendation that the United States take the initiative and that President Wilson ask congress to authorize him to invite all the powers to a conference to discuss the project.

Policy of Building.

Regarding his building program, Secretary Daniels says:

"The wise naval policy for the United States at this time is to find the golden mean. It cannot wisely by itself reduce the construction of dreadnoughts or compete with other great powers in burdening taxpayers to hasten the construction of a navy larger than our conditions demand The estimates of the navy department show a decrease in the ordinary expenditures. The program of the department may be summed up in the phrase: 'More money afloat and less ashore.' I therefore recommend the authorization by the present congress of the following building program: Two dreadnoughts, eight destroyers and three submarines.

"This is not, it will be observed, a large program, but it is a progressive one. It meets the demand to go forward in the continuation of 'an adequate and well proportioned navy.' We have under construction six battleships of the largest and most approved type.

Will Have Adequate Navy.

"With the authorization of two of the largest battleships ever constructed, before the close of the present administration, the United States will have enough ships to have always a creditable and capable fleet in both the Pacific and the Atlantic oceans. These, together with the smaller ships under construction, will make the American navy one of strength and power, ready for the protection of American shores and American interests. A steady building program of advancement from year to year will be necessary to give us an 'adequate navy,' the goal of American needs and desires."

The prices of armor plate and powder are too high, the secretary says, and he recommends government factories.

ATTACKS TIN CAN "TRUST"

Government Asks Dissolution of American Concern.

Baltimore, Dec. 1.—Suit was filed here in the United States district court to dissolve the American Can company, the so called tin can trust, which, the department of justice alleges, controls a large percentage of the business of the United States in tin can, containers and packages of tin. The American Sheet and Tin Plate company was made a defendant because of an agreement it is alleged to have with the American company to sell it tin for cans at a preferential rate.

In its complaint the government alleges practices in restraint of trade, agreements by absorbed concerns not to re-enter the field, contracts by consumers to buy from the "trust" exclusively and arbitrarily fixing of prices. Attorney General McReynolds asked in the bill for a dissolution other than on a pro rata basis, by asking for a separation into units of different ownership to insure the restoration of competition.

The men were recently convicted of frauds in connection with furnishing of supplies to the navy yard.

Horse Had to Be Killed.

A few days ago one of George McNeill's teams ran away, breaking one of the horse's legs and it had to be killed. The man working for Mr. McNeill was hauling hay and the horses got scared at some deer running through the field and got away from the driver, and while running through a gate one horse struck his shoulder and front legs against the gate post, breaking his leg.—Skidmore New Era.

HOW TO KEEP ACTIVE

When Old Age Overtakes Us.

Mrs. John Widmayer of Jackson, Mich., says: "Although 69 years of age, and naturally, because of my advanced age, in an enfeebled condition, I can truthfully say that Vinol has done wonders to keep me as active as I am. It is the best medicine to create strength that I ever saw. This spring I was very much run down and worn out but I took Vinol and soon felt stronger and able to work about the house. I can recommend Vinol as a very invigorating tonic."

Should the system get run down—digestive organs weak—the blood thin and sluggish—take Vinol, which is a delicious combination of the medicinal—body building properties of cods' livers, with the useless grease eliminated and tonic iron added. We regard Vinol as one of the greatest body builders and strength creators in the world for aged people.

We wish every feeble old person in this vicinity would try Vinol on our agreement to return their money if it fails to give satisfaction. Orear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

LOPEZ TRIES TO ESCAPE FROM TUNNEL

Deputies Frustrate Attempt by Fusillade at Opening.

Bingham, Utah, Dec. 1.—While Ralph Lopez, the slayer of six men, was attempting to batter down a bulkhead at the entrance of the Parnell tunnel in the Utah-Apex mine here, a posse penetrated the Andy incline and brought out the bodies of Deputy Sheriffs Douglas Halsey and Tom Mandrich, the victims of the desperado's unerring aim in a subterranean battle.

A surprising development was the report that Mike Cranovich, who shot his wife five times and seriously wounded her several days ago, was also a fugitive at bay in the mine and was co-operating with Lopez.

Two deputies on guard at the Parnell mouth opened fire with rifles when Lopez began breaking down the bulkhead, and he retreated back into the mine after prying away one board. That hunger is making him desperate is the belief of the officers, as he has been in the mine with only a small supply of food since Thursday.

Outwitted a dozen times since Lopez began his career of bloodshed on Nov. 21, the sheriffs of seven counties decided to batten up the mine and attempt to asphyxiate the fugitive with poisonous gases. Accordingly, all the fifteen exits were stopped with bulkheads.

SUFFRAGISTS IN SESSION

National Association Calls on Wilson to Take Up Woman's Cause.

Washington, Dec. 1.—A week's campaign by the National American Woman Suffrage association to procure the adoption of a constitutional amendment to enfranchise woman was launched at a mass meeting here. It was the formal opening of the forty-fifth annual convention of the association.

The association adopted almost unanimously resolutions introduced oy Mrs. Helen Ring Robinson, a member of the state senate of Colorado, calling upon President Wilson in his message to congress tomorrow to adopt the woman suffrage constitutional amendment as an administration measure.

REGULAR SESSION BEGINS ITS LABORS

New Congress Convenes With Vital Problems to Solve.

Washington, Dec. 1.—The special session of congres expired by limitation and the regular session began at noon today.

Democratic leaders, acting in concert with President Wilson, did not permit an actual finish to be written to the special session. The senate met at 10 a. m. and adjournment did not come until a few minutes before the regular session convened.

Two great projects have held the attention of congress and the country throughout the work of the year. One of these, tariff revision, crystallized into law in September. The other, currency reform, still is the chief subject of legislative interest.

The special session began with a reorganization of party leadership in the senate, which brought the so called progressive forces into control. Throughout the contests on tariff and currency the session has been marked by solidification of the Democratic ranks.

Demands of the Democratic leaders that the currency bill be passed at once brought the extra session to a stirring close, day and night sessions of the Democratic currency conference having marked the last week, and day and night sessions of the senate are promised for the new session until currency legislation is concluded.

Many bills which underwent preparations in the committee rooms will be pushed to conclusion in the new congress. These include the "seaman's servitude" bill, which passed the senate; the Hetch Hetchy bill, to grant San Francisco water supply rights in that valley, which passed the house and is to be voted on by the senate Dec. 6, and the Alaskan railway bill, which the senate has agreed to take up this month. The Alaskan measure would provide for government railroads to open more adequately Alaska's resources.

PRICHARD LEADS ARMY TEAN

Admitted to West Point From Eleventh Iowa District.

West Point, N. Y., Dec. 1.—The army football team, exultant over its defeat of the navy team, returned to camp. The squad was met at the wharf by the 600 cadets and hauled up the hill in the ancient stage which has been used for that purpose for many years. Six hundred pairs of willing hands were the motive power.

The football squad elected Vernon E. Prichard of the second class as captain of the 1914 eleven. Prichard has played quarterback on the team for two seasons. He is twenty-two years old, was admitted to West Point from the Eleventh congressional district of Iowa in June, 1911, and will be graduated in 1915.

Mrs. S. A. Pearse of Admire, Kan., returned home Monday morning from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Rankin Lyle.

MISSOURI'S GREAT RECORD AS CROP PRODUCING STATE.

STATE AVERAGE 32 BU.

Missouri "Some Pumpkins" When It Comes to Raising Corn, Wheat and Hay.

Missouri is "some pumpkins." Each year the Missouri farmer cuts a half billion dollar melon.

"Some pumpkins" in corn! Missouri will this year harvest more than a million bushels of corn to the county—and there are 114 counties in the state. Despite the discount that drouth demanded, we are still "some pumpkins" in corn production. Preliminary figures by the United States department of agriculture credit Missouri with more barrels of corn than Kansas has bushels—and it takes five bushels to make one barrel. The Missouri crop of 1912 was about a quarter of a billion bushels. But two states in the Union—Illinois and Iowa—grew more. Five Missouri counties each grew more than 5,000,000 bushels of corn, while seven others grew more than 4,000,000 bushels each. These twelve counties together grew one-fourth as much corn as the entire state of Indiana, practically the same as either Michigan or Wisconsin, more than one-fourth as much as either Kansas or Nebraska, one-third as much as the entire state of Texas, one-half as much as Oklahoma and more than all of Arkansas. The combined output of corn grown in twenty states of the Union is less than that of these dozen Missouri counties. One Missouri county alone with production of 6,413,000 bushels grew more corn than any one of sixteen states. Argentina, that vast country of South America, grew but one-fifth more bushels of corn than did Missouri.

"Some pumpkins" in wheat! The 1913 Missouri wheat crop amounted to more than 35,000,000 bushels—more, according to preliminary figures by the United States department of agriculture than that of any other state save six. This is more than twice as much wheat as was grown in either Oklahoma or Oregon, both heralded as wonder wheat states. It is more than three times as much as grown in the entire state of Texas, where the wagon haul to railroad is often as long as is the railroad haul in Missouri. It is more than three times as much as is grown in Colorado, where the millionaire goes for air, and almost thirty times as much as is grown in Arkansas, where many go for bear. It is more than was grown in Alberta last year, and in this same Missouri, land of balmy days and bluegrass, is grown a wheat crop equal to one-sixth of all Canada.

"Some pumpkins" in hay! With a hay harvest of 4,143,000 tons in 1912, Missouri, according to government figures, was surpassed by but three states—New York, Iowa and Pennsylvania. The Missouri crop was practically the same as the combined output of all the south central states—Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and Oklahoma. In value, it was more than double that of the Kansas crop.

"Some pumpkins" in total value of farm crops! Missouri is now the fourth state in the Union in total value of farm crops. Texas is first, with crop values for the year 1912 amounting to $407,166,000; Illinois second, $289,326,000; Iowa third, $284,395,000; Missouri fourth, $196,968,000. A further analysis of the figures as given by the government shows Missouri's superiority. For instance, the total land area of Missouri is but 43,985,720 acres as compared with 167,934,720 acres in Texas. Missouri with only about one-fourth the land area, produced last year farm crops worth approximately one-half as much as all Texas. In 1912 Texas farmers cultivated 7,300,000 acres of corn land; Missouri farmers, 7,622,000; Kansas farmers, 7,575,000. The corn acreage for the three states differed but little—the difference is in the yield. Texas grew 153,300,000 bushels of corn; Kansas, 174,225,000; Missouri, 243,904,000. For his work the Texas farmer got 21 bushels of corn per acre, the Kansas farmer 23 bushels, and the Missouri farmer 32 bushels.

REASON FOR ATTENDING CHURCH

What a Congressman Says About It—Should Be Read in Every Church and Sunday School.

Congressman Claude Weaver of Oklahoma recently gave to Leslie's Weekly his reason for attending church. The article attracted wide attention and Mr. Weaver's colleagues in congress voted it a place in the Congressional Record of the United States congress, upon a motion made by Congressman Ferris, who said it "should be read in every church and Sunday school in the United States, and should be preserved for those who come after us." Congressman Weaver's article is as follows:

It is sweet on a summer's morning, when the air is aquiver with the love songs of the birds and fragrant with the odor of roses blown, to hear the music of the churchgoing bells, an invitation to the world-wearied to enter God's temple and find peace, because the instinct of worship is in the heart of man and the church is the temple of the living God.

I go to church because I find peace there, that peace which De Quincy described as a resting from human labors, a Sabbath of repose, a respite granted from the secret burdens of the heat, as if the tumult and fever and strife were suspended; as if there brooded over me a dove-like and halcyon calm.

I go to church because I love the music that I hear there, the mighty roll of the great organ, mingled with the marvelous symphonies of that divine stringed instrument, the human voice, untwisting all the chains that tie the hidden soul of harmony.

I go to church because I delight to hear the teachings of the preacher, whose sold is dedicated to God, whose field is as wide as God's universe, whose theme is the destiny of man, and whose words are the oracles of Fate. Marvelous is the spell of the preacher to whom God has given genius and consecration and the power of illustration drawn from the old, sacred, immortal Book, and from the miracles of nature, no less revealed in the crimson-tipped flower turned up by the plowshare of Robert Burns upon the soil of Ayr than in the long reaches of the star-girt skies.

I go to church because "the way is dark and I am far from home," and because the church is the polar star to light my pathway in the rayless night.

I go to church because the church ministers not only to the spiritual but also to the material needs of life, and because it is there that the charities that soothe and heal and bless are scattered at the feet of man like flowers.

I go to church because in that atmosphere vice and crime wither and die.

I go to church because I hear the teachings of the philosophy of Jesus, the incomparable man; and if you say His teaching is philosophy and not religion, and that He was a man and not a god, then the philosophy of that man has redeemed the world from savagery and blessed mankind with Christian civilization, and, to my mind, it is a thing worth while to hear.

I go to church because I find there consolation and hope; because I see there the dawn and not the sunset; and it is better for man, if the hope is baseless and the vision but an elusive phantom, to cherish a dream so glorious and beautiful than to be weighted down and crushed with the quarried mountains of a world without hope and without God.

MORE WEDDINGS

MATRIMONY HAS BEEN LIVELY THIS YEAR.

253 LICENSES ISSUED

Two More Than Were Issued During All of Last Year—February the Best Month.

The matrimony business this year is better than it was last year, and still there is one more month to run on this year. Up to December 1 there were 253 marriage licenses issued by Recorder J. Arthur Wray since January 1. The marriage licenses as issued for the year 1912 were 251.

The record as made during the eleven months of this year is two better than the entire number issued during 1912. The highest month this year was in February, when 32 licenses were issued. The next best month was March. In 1912 the best month was December, there being 44. The second month was February, with June as third.

The following are the licenses issued so far this year by months:

January 24, February 32, March 29, April 28, May 12, June 16, July, August 17, September 28, October 24, November 20.

For the year 1912 the following record was made by months:

January 16, February 30, March 23, April 15, May 10, June 24, July 12, August 15, September 18, October 23, November 21, December 44.

EXHIBIT CAR COMING.

Many Exhibits of the Wonderful Agricultural Possibilities of the Southwest.

A representatives of the agricultural department of the St. Louis Southwestern (Cotton Belt) railway called at the office of The Democrat-Forum today, advertising the visit of the exhibit car which this company is operating through the north, showing the products of the farms along its lines.

This car is worthy of a visit from an educational standpoint, as it contains samples of all kinds of farm crops grown in the south, including cotton, rice, sugar cane, as well as a great many of the standard crops ordinarily grown in the north.

The object of this car is to demonstrate to the farmers and business men of the territory the wonderful agricultural possibilities of the southwest. The farmers and business men are invited to visit the car, also a special invitation is extended to the school children to visit the car, accompanied by their teachers. Special talks will be given the school children by those in charge of the car relative to the growing of the different crops in the south.

Admission to the car is free to everybody. It will be in Maryville on Friday, December 5, from 8 a. m. to 8:43 p. m., near the Wabash freight depot.

The Hedge Fence Law.

Property owners who neglect their hedges until they become a nuisance to the traveling public will be interested in knowing that further neglect is likely to bring upon them a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $100 for each offense. A law passed by the recent legislature provides that any person holding a hedge fence or property enclosed by such a fence along any public road or highway in this state must trim the same to the height of not more than five feet once a year. As soon as notified in writing by three or more property owners of his district that this law is being violated a road overseer must notify the prosecuting attorney at once, presenting him with the copy for the notice. It will then become the duty of the prosecuting attorney to begin action against the offender unless he complies with the law within thirty days. Neglected hedges soon become a nuisance to the traveling public and this law will be generally appreciated.

GOSSIP FATAL TO SOCIAL LIFE.

Farm Women's Clubs Cannot Succeed Unless Other Interests Are Paramount.

Only one thing is fatal to the happy social life of any country community, and that is gossip. If the women in their clubs cannot find in the wide field of housekeeping, chicken raising, preserving, care of children, public schools, music, art, reading, public improvements, good government, health, sewing, entertaining and all other delightful household tasks, enough material to lift the meetings above petty personalities, then the little club, or whatever it is called, is doomed. Whenever gossip is allowed to creep into any organization people will begin to break up into little cliques or circles or groups, and the whole thing fails.—Hilda Richmond in Farm and Fireside.

HE IS NOW READY

TREASURER HAS MONEY FOR ROAD WORK.

CONTRACTS TO BE MADE

Highway Commission Anxious to Hear From Men Who Will Drag the Roads.

The county highway commission is now ready to contract for the dragging of the county seat roads in this county, as Treasurer W. R. Tilson has received the first payment of the money due to the county for three months. The amount is $540, and another payment of $180 will be received soon by Mr. Tilson from the state for the month of October.

With $160 being received every month for the dragging of 144 miles of these roads, the county commission wants to let the work now so the roads can be dragged before winter sets in. The secretary of the commission, John H. Clary, would like for those living along these roads to notify him at once of how many miles they would be willing to sign contract to drag. The commission would prefer in many instances where it is practical for one man to contract for four or six miles, and he to direct the work whenever it is done by him or not done by him in person. To contract for each individual mile would require a great deal of labor on the part of the commission to keep straight.

Those who are wanting to sign contracts for dragging the roads are to state in their applications the distance and from what point to what point and on what road they are wanting to have. According to the state law $15 a mile is allowed for each road, and the money being received is on this basis.

With the money now on hand we will be able to care for the roads during winter and have them in good condition in the spring.

A Good Corn Crop.

L. W. Huddle, who bought the F. McMackin farm, southwest of Burlington Junction, last winter, has raised a bumper corn crop this year. The corn from fifteen acres weighed out 1,050 bushels, and he had thirty acres that averaged sixty bushels. Mr. Huddle has been offered 75 cents for the corn, and the land would bring an income of $45 an acre at this price. There are several other fields on the river bottom near Burlington Junction that are averaging from fifty to seventy bushels.—Burlington Junction Post.

REVIVAL STARTED

SUNDAY AT THE FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH OF THIS CITY.

THE SUNDAY'S SERVICES

An Address by Mrs. Latshaw in the Morning—Had Lady Ushers and Chorus and Raised $175.

The series of special services that commenced Sunday at the First Christian church opened with a special meeting of the C. W. B. M., who had charge of the morning service.

The morning address was delivered by Mrs. Ralph S. Latshaw of Kansas City, who gave an inspirational and instructive talk. Mrs. Latshaw is president of the state C. W. B. M., which has a membership of 8,000, with 274 auxiliaries. This membership led that of each other state in the report turned in at the international convention at Toronto, Canada, held recently. At the close of the service Mrs. Latshaw asked the minister, Rev. F. L. Finch, to conduct the call for an offering for the day, which resulted in gathering $175. Six new life memberships of $25 each were taken and one name plate costing $10 was taken in memory of the late Mrs. Frank Owens. The plate will have a place in the missionary training school at Indianapolis, Ind.

The morning services were presided over by the president, Mrs. Robert Lyle, and Mrs. J. D. Frank, the county president, had charge of the devotional services. The music was furnished by a ladies chorus and the ushers were ladies.

The evening service was evangelistic, the pastor, Rev. Finch, speaking on the subject "The Great Man in Maryville—The Man Who Serves in His Respective Sphere of Life."

Fifty people pledged at the evening service to take a religious census of Maryville on Tuesday afternoon.

There will be services each night this week, the subject for Monday night being "Positive Discipleship." The public is cordially invited to attend these meetings.

PHONES CUT OFF.

One-Hundred and Twenty-Five Out of Two Hundred People on Clearmont Directories Are Phoneless.

The Clearmont Telephone company held a meeting Monday morning, December 1, and ordered service on 125 phones cut off until the dues on those phones were paid.

The patrons are not "dead beats," not by any means, but they have just neglected to pay their dues. So 125 people, including all but five business houses in town, felt completely isolate dtoday, until their could re-establish themselves in the service.

At 3 o'clock Monday afternoon people were trying to pay their dues at the rate of five at a time, and just as soon as they can get to town or send somebody the ywill pay up. The plight some people found themselves in when they could not make known their wants was langhable.

The officers of the company are Howard Bancroft, president; Will Lemon, secretary; Jacob Burch, treasurer.

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT, BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Make it Thick, Glossy, Wavy, Luxuriant and Removes Dandruff—Real Surprise For You.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleans, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it.—Advertisement.

Reception for Kansas City Women.

Although the weather was exceeding inclement Saturday afternoon, quite a number of women gathered in the parlors of the First Christian church to meet Mrs. Ralph S. Latshaw, Sr., and Mrs. O. W. Lawrence of Kansas City, state officers of the C. W. B. M. The reception was to have been given for the visiting ladies by the local C. W. B. M. and the Young Ladies' Mission Circle, but owing to the fact that they missed their train connections in Kansas City through the breaking down of the engine on their train out of Kansas City, they did not reach Maryville until 5 o'clock. Mrs. Latshaw and Mrs. Lawrence came over by team from Conception Junction. There was much disappointment felt at not meeting them at the reception, especially in the case of Mrs. Lawrence, who is admired and loved by many here as the wife of the late Rev. O. W. Lawrence. Those who remained to meet them, however, were well repaid.

Mrs. Lawrence, who left on the 7:11 train for Burlington Junction to keep her appointment with the C. W. B. M. of the Christian church there for an address at the morning service, responded first to the welcome given her by the women she had loved and worked with as a pastor's wife only a few years ago. Every word she said was an inspiration, and her brief notice of the great Toronto convention was enough to show she had gained enough there to spur her on to still greater endeavor, and that she was able to lead others. She told with gratitude how the people of her denomination were becoming a praying people, one characteristic of the convention being the large prayer meetings at 7:30 each morning, and then that they were becoming great in giving. One man from a church in southern California, at Redlands, where her father, Dr. Bayard Craig, is pastor, has increased his subscription to mission work to $500 per month, an increase of $1,000 a year over his subscription of last year, and many other men of wealth are consecrating it to the work of spreading the Gospel throughout all the world, while a Denver woman has only recently given half her fortune.

Mrs. Latshaw, who is the wife of Judge Latshaw of the criminal court of Kansas City, then gave a short talk. She is a woman of splendid presence, large and queenly in bearing, and is as charming of manner as is Mrs. Lawrence. She is eminently fitted for her office as president of the Missouri C. W. B. M., and it was indeed an infusion of new life to meet and hear these women, who are so consecrated to Christian work and are devoting their time in leading organized effort in spreading the kingdom of God.

Mrs. Latshaw is the mother of six children, and although she has been busily engaged in church work all through her married life, she has not neglected the rearing of her children. Her eldest son, Ralph S. Latshaw, Jr., is assistant prosecuting attorney of Jackson county, and her eldest daughter, Miss Constance Latshaw, is actively engaged in state Endeavor work, and has several times served as a state officer. Both are graduates of the Missouri state university. Her youngest daughter, Mary, is president of the Junior Endeavor society at the Jackson Avenue Christian church. Ross, the youngest son, who is 5 years old, says he is going to be a missionary to Africa and shoot lions. Mrs. Latshaw's other two children are in high school, and all are studying and are personally interested in some phase of the world's missionary work.

Mrs. Latshaw is a woman of broad culture. She was born in Honolulu and lived there until she was 11 years old, when her father, an American lumber merchant there, returned to this country and went to Kansas City to live, where she was educated. On her graduation from high school she was granted a year's visit with friends in Honolulu, where she took special study. She did not realize the importance of the work of missionaries in the foreign countries until her last visit in Honolulu. When she was a small child, living there, she attended the schools of the missionaries, but did not care for them much, because one thing in hand work she was given to do was to piece quilts, and she disliked it. But one time when the missionaries started away to work on other islands and she, with the other children, went down to the wharf to see them off, their going made a deep impression on her and she deeply regretted their departure. They sailed away in one of the ships called "Morning Stars," that were built and paid for by the children of the United States for carrying on missionary work.

Mrs. Latshaw believes with one of our noted ministers that the one course of study she would select for her daughters to give them a world point of view of things would be the study of missions, for it includes a most fascinating course in the study of all the peoples of the world, their government, their customs, their religion, all their life. A university course does nothing but give one a point of view, a big point of view, for one gets his Greek and Latin and other things that go in a learned course, but the point of view one gains is the thing that counts. To study and work in the cause of missions gives one a wonderful viewpoint, and, in small measure, God's viewpoint, and that is what the Christian woman of today needs, and the woman who wants to be of service. Women are not satisfied these days with merely giving themselves over to a life that has pleasures for the few, but they want a training that will result in doing good to all the world when put into use.

Mental Telepathy

We have grown to be quite experienced in this field, which we will try to explain.

One of our known young society ladies favored us with a call Saturday to have her Hat Pin straightened. While this was being done a "mental message" came to our young man, who was talking every day topics, "How I would love to see those beautiful new coral rings"—and our young man immediately took out the tray, and to her dismay, showed her what she had asked to herself to see.

Now our only explanation—we study you—your wants and your wishes.

Printed on the front of every official time table which goes to Wabash employes are two large circles, "SAFETY ALWAYS." Printed on the back of every official time table are these words: "SAFETY should be the first consideration of every employe." It is a constant admonition to every Wabash trainman, for the protection of every Wabash traveler. Beginning with the human factor, the Wabash surrounds its travelers with every mechanical safeguard known to modern railroadism: Steel equipment; automatic electric block signals; miles of double track; heavy rails and substantial roadbed; telephone dispatching, etc.

REGARDING Wiring of Houses After Same are Occupied

Many people suppose that a house which is built and occupied cannot be wired without tearing same to pieces. This is an erroneous idea. We can and do wire many houses of this description without even disturbing the furniture in the greater part of the house. We replace everything as found. Should it be necessary to take up any carpets on the second floor we relay same, and in fact if you were out of the house until we had finished the only evidence of our visit would be a modern lighting system, which after using you would never be without. Let us call and figure the cost. It is less than you think. Electricity is no longer a luxury and is the only household necessity which has become appreciably cheaper in the last years.

VILLA PREPARES TO MOVE SOUTH

Advance Guard of Rebel Army on Way to Chihuahua.

SAYS HE WILL SOON TAKE CITY

Rebel Chieftain Declares It Is On to Mexico City Next—Carranza Evidently Waiting Outcome of Hale's Conference With Wilson.

Juarez, Dec. 1.—Northern Mexico, embracing the states of Sonora, Chihuahua, Coahuila, Nuevo Leon and Tamaulipas and including the territory from the border 500 miles southward, will be wholly under the authority of the rebel forces within two weeks. The forces which are fighting Huerta will then join at Guadalajara with a view of marching on to Mexico City.

General Francisco Villa, the rebel leader, so announced. This campaign, he said, contemplated not only the capture of Chihuahua City, but also the spreading of the rebel, or constitutionalist, authority farther south.

He is to be joined in the interior later by General Carranza, the head of the revolutionary movement. So far as the north is concerned, Villa said the campaign is between 14,500 federal troops, mostly in garrison, and 20,300 rebels, or constitutionalists, in garrisons or roaming the country.

In preparation for the attack on Chihuahua City, 3,500 troops, with sixteen machine guns and equipment, which filled three trains, have left Juarez and had reached a point fifty miles south. Villa expects to join his men within a few days and if possible to keep open train and telegraph service behind him. He said he would be in Chihuahua City within ten days.

But the capture of the city, he insisted, will be only an incident of a further advance later in conjunction with Carranza and other rebel leaders.

Villa pointed out that the only important points along the United States border not held by the rebels now are Nuevo Laredo, opposite Laredo, Tex., and Piedras Negras, opposite Eagle Pass, Tex., and that his forces already had captured every city in the north except Guaymas, Chihuahua City, Saltillo, Montclova and Monterey.

Carranza Waiting.

Hermosillo, Sonora, Mex., Dec. 1.—General Carranza and his advisers appeared to have assumed a policy of awaiting the result of Francisco Villa's attack on Chihuahua and the outcome of William Bayard Hale's conferences with President Wilson at Washington before making either a military or diplomatic move. The success or failure of Villa's attempt to capture the Chihuahua state capital is expected to decide in which direction the provisional capital will be moved.

CAMORRISTS WOULD APPEAL

Socialist Deputy Holds Men Convicted at Viterbo Were Not Murderers.

Rome, Dec. 1.—Sig. Sollini, Socialist deputy from Naples, is determined to have the trial of the Camorrists at Viterbo revised. He says he is convinced that the chiefs of the organization who were convicted there were not the actual murderers of Cuoccolo at Naples and threatens to make sensational revelations in case his appeal is rejected.

Warrant Officer Farris of the carabinieri, who was one of the chief witnesses at the trial, has just resigned because the government gave a reward of only $40. Sollini hopes that he will be able to make a big point in his case through the knowledge possessed by Farris.

The latter, while admitting that he could make sensational disclosures involving the superiors, says he is convinced that the verdict at the Viterbo trial was just.

Teamsters Strike in Indianapolis.

Farrell, general organizer of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffers, Stablemen and Helpers of America. Drivers of hearses are exempt from the strike order. Farrell also announced there would be no interference with the mails.

RAVENWOOD.

The turkey dinner and oyster supper given here by the Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church on Thanksgiving was a complete success. A large crowd of well behaved people were present, and between $55 and $60 was taken in. It was the occasion of the meeting of neighbors and friends that was enjoyed by all. Such social gatherings are good places to cultivate the finer and nobler qualities of our human nature as well as to show our thanks to the giver of all blesings, both spiritual and temporal.

We had a considerable rain Friday night and Saturday and Sunday.

Our farmers will soon be done husking corn if the weather is favorable. There is some fine corn in this part of the county, and some that is very light. No indication of a famine.

DANIELS TELLS OF NEEDS OF NAVY

Recommendations and Suggestions of Secretary.

NAVAL BUILDING PROGRAM.

Asks for Two Dreadnoughts, Three Submarines and Eight Destroyers. Proposes to Spend More Money Afloat and Less Ashore.

Washington, Dec. 1.—Two dreadnoughts, eight destroyers and three submarines is the yearly naval building program Secretary Daniels recommends in his first annual report to President Wilson.

While such a program is somewhat less than recommended by the navy general board, principally because Mr. Daniels believes it is as heavy as the revenues of the government will permit, he believes it is a progressive one which will meet the demand to go forward in the continuation of an adequate and well proportioned navy.

Second only in interest to the secretary's building program is an indorsement of Winston Churchill's proposed "naval holiday," with a recommendation that the United States take the initiative and that President Wilson ask congress to authorize him to invite all the powers to a conference to discuss the project.

Policy of Building.

Regarding his building program, Secretary Daniels says:

"The wise naval policy for the United States at this time is to find the golden mean. It cannot wisely by itself reduce the construction of dreadnoughts or compete with other great powers in burdening taxpayers to hasten the construction of a navy larger than our conditions demand. The estimates of the navy department show a decrease in the ordinary expenditures. The program of the department may be summed up in the phrase: 'More money afloat and less ashore.' I therefore recommend the authorization by the present congress of the following building program: Two dreadnoughts, eight destroyers and three submarines.

"This is not, it will be observed, a large program, but it is a progressive one. It meets the demand to go forward in the continuation of 'an adequate and well proportioned navy.' We have under construction six battleships of the largest and most approved type.

Will Have Adequate Navy.

"With the authorization of two of the largest battleships ever constructed, before the close of the present administration, the United States will have enough ships to have always a creditable and capable fleet in both the Pacific and the Atlantic oceans. These, together with the smaller ships under construction, will make the American navy one of strength and power, ready for the protection of American shores and American interests. A steady building program of advancement from year to year will be necessary to give us an 'adequate navy,' the goal of American needs and desires."

The prices of armor plate and powder are too high, the secretary says, and he recommends government factories.

ATTACKS TIN CAN "TRUST"

Government Asks Dissolution of American Concern.

Baltimore, Dec. 1.—Suit was filed here in the United States district court to dissolve the American Can company, the so called tin can trust, which, the department of justice alleges, controls a large percentage of the business of the United States in tin can, containers and packages of tin. The American Sheet and Tin Plate company was made a defendant because of an agreement it is alleged to have with the American company to sell it tin for cans at a preferential rate.

In its complaint the government alleges practices in restraint of trade, agreements by absorbed concerns not to re-enter the field, contracts by consumers to buy from the "trust" exclusively and arbitrarily fixing of prices. Attorney General McReynolds asked in the bill for a dissolution other than on a pro rata basis, by asking for a separation into units of different ownership to insure the restoration of competition.

SENTENCED FOR SWINDLE

Two Men to Go to Prison for Western Smelting Frauds.

Seattle, Dec. 1.—Edwin F. Meyer, formerly chief clerk in the general storekeeper's office in the Puget Sound navy yard, and Emar Goldberg, manager of the Seattle branch of the Great Western Smelting company, were sentenced to fifteen months each in the McNeil island penitentiary and to pay a fine of $2,000 each for conspiracy to defraud the government. The men were recently convicted of frauds in connection with furnishing of supplies to the navy yard.

Marshal's Bullet Hits Man in Back.

Sioux City, Ia., Dec. 1.—Harry Ellis, aged twenty-three, of Whiting was brought to a Sioux City hospital, dangerously wounded, with a bullet in the back. Ellis was creating a disturbance in his father's hotel at Whiting. Town Marshal Beecher was called to the scene. Ellis knocked the marshal down and started to run away. The marshal fired a bullet into the back of the fleeing man.

"Old Scout" Wiggins Is Dead.

Denver, Dec. 1.—Oliver P. (Old Scout) Wiggins, one of Denver's most famous early frontiersmen, died at his residence here at the age of ninety.

British Bark Gives Signal of Mutiny.

Seattle, Dec. 1.—The British bark Lynton was sighted off Cape Flattery, signaling "Assistance wanted—mutiny."

Leaps Into Ocean Grave.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA, GAS OR INDIGESTION

Each "Pape's Diapepsinn" Digests 3,000 Grains Food, Ending All Stomach Misery in Five Minutes.

Time it! Pape's Diapepsin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.—Advertisement.

Horse Had to Be Killed.

A few days ago one of George McNeill's teams ran away, breaking one of the horse's legs and it had to be killed. The man working for Mr. McNeill was hauling hay and the horses got scared at some deer running through the field and got away from the driver, and while running through a gate one horse struck his shoulder and front legs against the gate post, breaking his leg.—Skidmore New Era.

HOW TO KEEP ACTIVE

When Old Age Overtakes Us.

Mrs. John Widmayer of Jackson, Mich., says: "Although 69 years of age, and naturally, because of my advanced age, in an enfeebled condition, I can truthfully say that Vinol has done wonders to keep me as active as I am. It is the best medicine to create strength that I ever saw. This spring I was very much run down and worn out but I took Vinol and soon felt stronger and able to work about the house. I can recommend Vinol as a very invigorating tonic."

Should the system get run down—digestive organs weak—the blood thin and sluggish—take Vinol, which is a delicious combination of the medicinal—body building properties of cods' livers, with the useless grease eliminated and tonic iron added. We regard Vinol as one of the greatest body builders and strength creators in the world for aged people.

We wish every feeble old person in this vicinity would try Vinol on our agreement to return their money if it fails to give satisfaction. Orear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

LOPEZ TRIES TO ESCAPE FROM TUNNEL

Deputies Frustrate Attempt by Fusiliade at Opening.

Bingham, Utah, Dec. 1.—While Ralph Lopez, the slayer of six men, was attempting to batter down a bulkhead at the entrance of the Parnell tunnel in the Utah-Apex mine here, a posse penetrated the Andy incline and brought out the bodies of Deputy Sheriffs Douglas Halsey and Tom Mandrich, the victims of the desperado's unerring aim in a subterranean battle.

A surprising development was the report that Mike Cranovich, who shot his wife five times and seriously wounded her several days ago, was also a fugitive at bay in the mine and was co-operating with Lopez.

Two deputies on guard at the Parnell mouth opened fire with rifles when Lopez began breaking down the bulkhead, and he retreated back into the mine after prying away one board. That hunger is making him desperate is the belief of the officers, as he has been in the mine with only a small supply of food since Thursday.

Outwitted a dozen times since Lopez began his career of bloodshed on Nov. 21, the sheriffs of seven counties decided to batten up the mine and attempt to asphyxiate the fugitive with poisonous gases. Accordingly, all the fifteen exits were stopped with bulkheads.

SUFFRAGISTS IN SESSION

National Association Calls on Wilson to Take Up Woman's Cause.

Washington, Dec. 1.—A week's campaign by the National American Woman Suffrage association to procure the adoption of a constitutional amendment to enfranchise woman was launched at a mass meeting here. It was the formal opening of the forty-fifth annual convention of the association.

The association adopted almost unanimously resolutions introduced by Mrs. Helen Ring Robinson, a member of the state senate of Colorado, calling upon President Wilson in his message to congress tomorrow to adopt the woman suffrage constitutional amendment as an administration measure.

REGULAR SESSION BEGINS ITS LABORS

New Congress Convenes With Vital Problems to Solve.

Washington, Dec. 1.—The special session of congres expired by limitation and the regular session began at noon today.

Democratic leaders, acting in concert with President Wilson, did not permit an actual finish to be written to the special session. The senate met at 10 a. m. and adjournment did not come until a few minutes before the regular session convened.

Two great projects have held the attention of congress and the country throughout the work of the year. One of these, tariff revision, crystallized into law in September. The other, currency reform, still is the chief subject of legislative interest.

The special session began with a reorganization of party leadership in the senate, which brought the so called progressive forces into control. Throughout the contests on tariff and currency the session has been marked by solidification of the Democratic ranks.

Demands of the Democratic leaders that the currency bill be passed at once brought the extra session to a stirring close, day and night sessions of the Democratic currency conference having marked the last week, and day and night sessions of the senate are promised for the new session until currency legislation is concluded.

Many bills which underwent preparations in the committee rooms will be pushed to conclusion in the new congress. These include the "seaman's servitude" bill, which passed the senate; the Hetch Hetchy bill, to grant San Francisco water supply rights in that valley, which passed the house and is to be voted on by the senate Dec. 6, and the Alaskan railway bill which the senate has agreed to take up this month. The Alaskan measure would provide for government railroads to open more adequately Alaska's resources.

PRICHARD LEADS ARMY TEAN

Admitted to West Point From Eleventh Iowa District.

West Point, N. Y., Dec. 1.—The army football team, exultant over its defeat of the navy team, returned to camp. The squad was met at the wharf by the 600 cadets and hauled up the hill in the ancient stage which has been used for that purpose for many years. Six hundred pairs of willing hands were the motive power.

The football squad elected Vernon B. Prichard of the second class as captain of the 1914 eleven. Prichard has played quarterback on the team for two seasons. He is twenty-two years old, was admitted to West Point from the Eleventh congressional district of Iowa in June, 1911, and will be graduated in 1915.

Yawns Dislocate His Jaw.

Batavia, N. Y., Dec. 1.—Walter Gray, thirty-five years old, presents a baffling case to Batavia physicians. He has yawned three times since Saturday and each time a physician has been obliged to administer treatment to get the man's mouth closed again, his jaws having become dislocated in each case.

Mrs. S. A. Pearse of Admire, Kan., returned home Monday morning from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Rankin Lyle.
